Dedication

In Memory of Mr. Paul Browning

In Memorandum

Paul Browing, Librarian of Monson Junior-Senior High School, and valued member of the faculty. He was active in many aspects of the school, ranging from Audio/Visual Coordinator to the As School`s Match Wits coach and the Faculty Advisor for the Monson High School Debate Society. It was in these ways that he became so much more than a mere Librarian, but the source of a plethora of information, and one could swear that he knew every single book in the place as if it were the back of his hand. Sure, one could say that his methods may have been more than a little strict and could be downright difficult at times, but it was always in the best interest of those around him. He always wanted to be independent and self-sustaining, but in more ways, he did just the opposite. By being everywhere for us, he only made us more dependent upon him. Unfortunately, in wasn`t until his untimely passing that we realized exactly what he did for us to make things run as smooth as possible and so I take great honor in being able to write this dedication for this Yearbook to the memory of Paul Browning, Striver for Excellence. He will be be missed deeply, and I ask that all who my words reach remember him only in the fondest of terms.

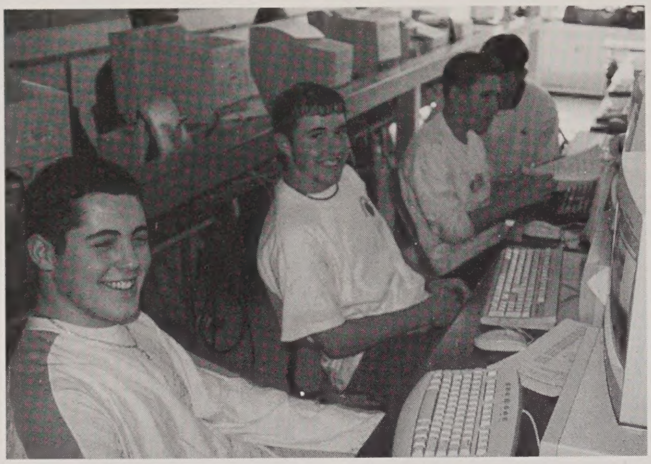
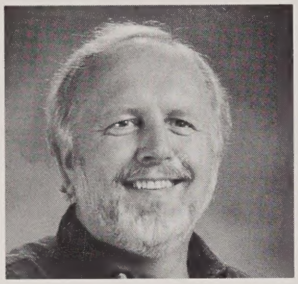
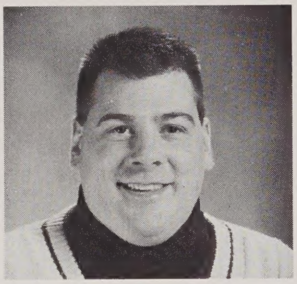
Art

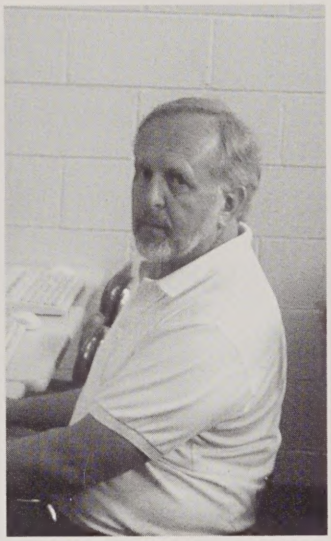
AAAGGGHHH!!!!!!!!!! Chances are that if you hear yelling coming from the art room, Mr. Devine is obviously on a rampage. Always spazzmatic, Mr. Devine has a unique style of teaching. He helps his students to tap into their true abilities. Also in the art department is Ms. Willis, who is the epitomy of patience. She offers guidance to both the talented and to those who struggle to improve their art skills. This combination of personalities makes the art room the place to be at MJSHS.

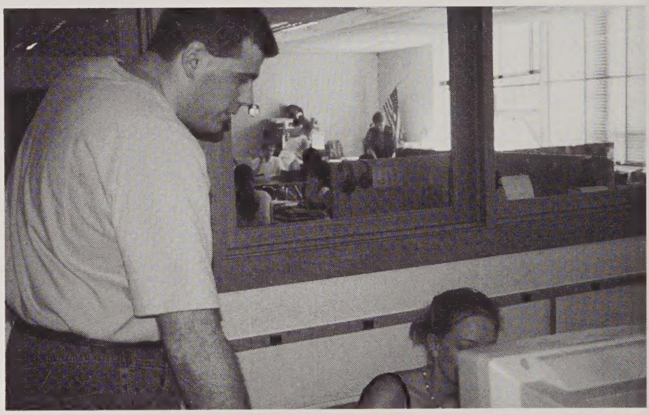






Mr. Lucas (above), Mr.Poulin (above right).

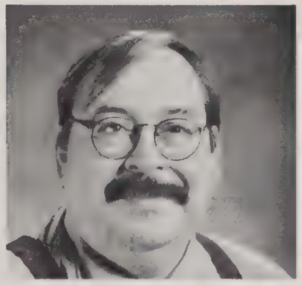




Mrs. Desmond

Business and Computers

We have our very own successful business team working right here at MJSHS. We have our own giant and let`s hope that Mr. Poulin`s marketing ploys will outlast those of the Jolly Green Giant. Mrs. Desmond is always more than willing to help any student with their typing or business needs. Finally, there is Mr. Lucas, he knows all there is to know about computers and could quite possibly solve any problem that you might encounter.

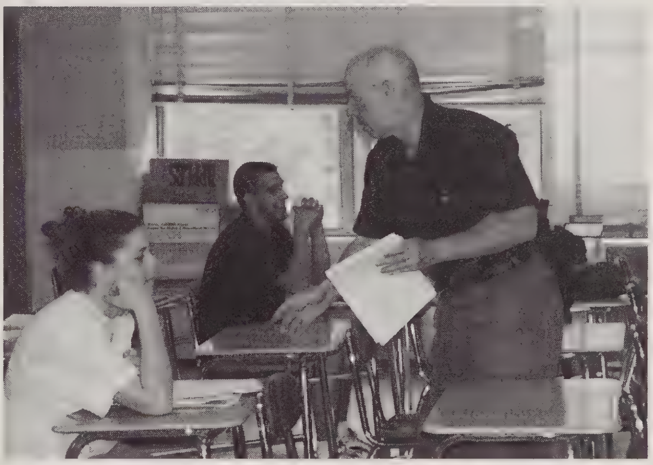


Mr. Renaud

Mr. Murray

Mrs. Chojnowski

Ms. Doherty

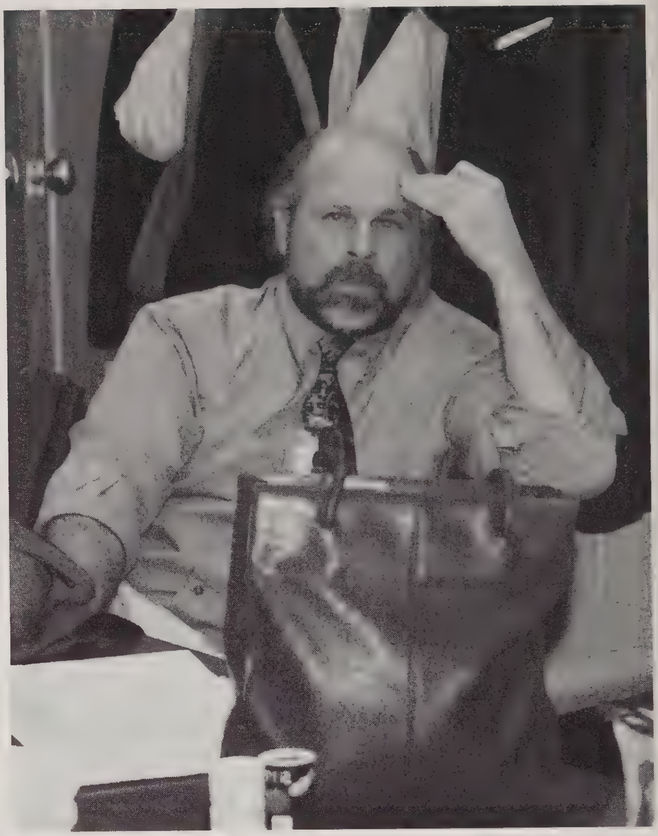


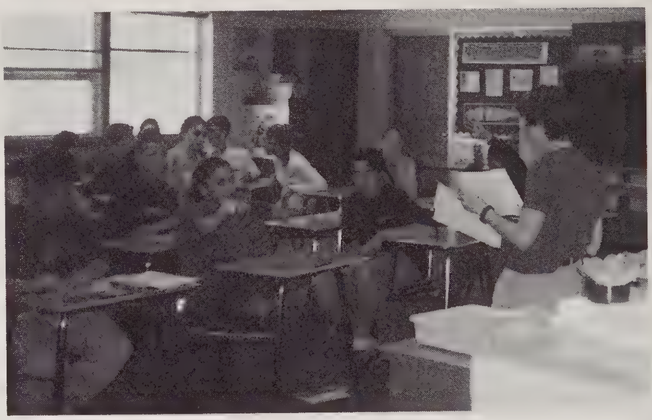
English

``We ain`t got no gramma skillz...,`` familiar lingo around MJSHS, on the first day of school. It was the English department`s job to correct these problems. Our ``correction staff`` includes some new faces, and some familar faces in new places. In the 7th grade, Mrs. Finnegan took on the task once again. Former 8th grade teacher, Ms. Bethoney, took her drill sergeant techniques to our V.P. position. Former 9th grade teacher, Mrs. Leal, put some fear into the 8th graders, with her ``Questions, comments, and other thoughts to share?`` A new face, Ms. Doherty, showed 9th graders ``How to Kill a Mockingbird.`` Mrs. Chojnowski, once again took the sophomores to Britain for some important literature. Mr. Murray was punny as always in his 11th grade classes. And, finally, Mr. Renaud`s classes cried as they learned about poetry, while watching beloved trees get chopped down outside the window. With every line read, another tree fell, and another tear was seen in Renaud`s eye.

Mr. Kozikowski, (upper right), and Mrs. Evans, (lower right)

Mrs. DeDominicis



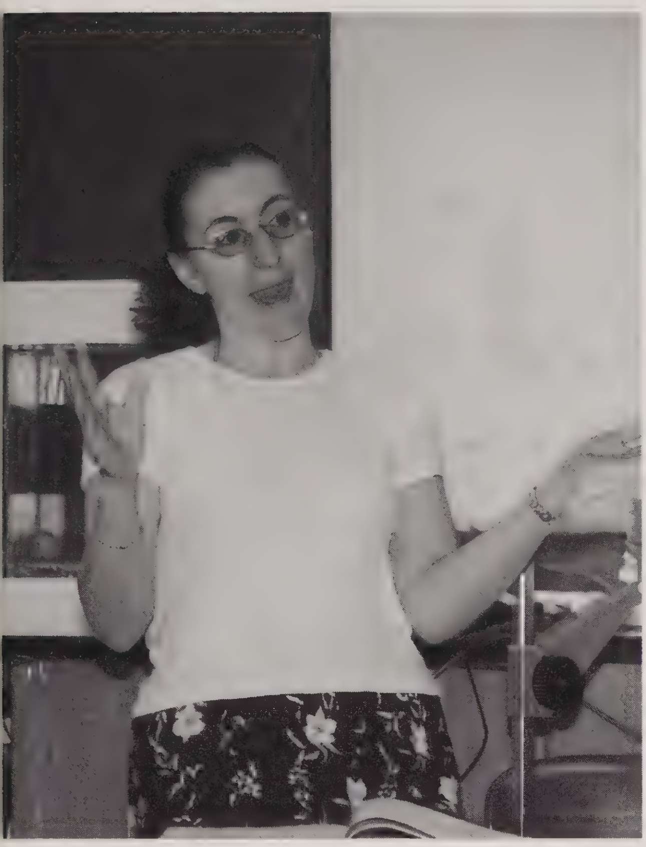


Family and Consumer Science

Home Economics is no longer just a girls class. In fact, at MJSHS, these classes are thoroughly diverse. Mrs. D. says, ``Most students enjoy the new experiences and usually are excited about embracing the challenge.`` Whether the students are planning meals, cooking, or going home with a crying doll, these classes are enjoyable and beneficial for all students at MJSHS.

Health

The Health department is better than ever, due to the hard work and dedication of Mrs. Evans and Mr. K. Together, this dynamic duo makes Health classes not only informative, but interesting and fun as well. They have helped to create a healthier student body in the Monson community.



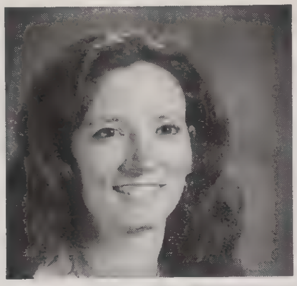
Ms. Bailey, (upper right,) and Mrs. Cartier, (lower right)

Mrs. Webster

The lively world of Foreign Language....

Foreign Language

``A step to the right, and bring your arms up and together...,`` What is this dance class?! Actually, it is the lively world of foreign language. This year the foreign language teachers of MJSHS seem to have turned their focus to the performing arts. For instance, Mrs. Webster`s Spanish classes learned the Preposition Dance and the Preterite Rap this year. While in French, Mrs. Miller`s classes exhibited works for the French Poetry contest during National French Week. These students also incorporated French art into their curriculum with a French Art Contest. It is already apparent that this year held many enjoyable moments for the foreign language students of MJSHS. Whether it was naming Mrs. Webster`s outfits with exotic names like ``wild game hunter,`` or making piñatas in Mrs. Cartier`s Spanish classes, the foreign language scene was always quite imaginative. Mrs. Webster leaves her seniors, these parting words, ``A todos mis alumnos que estan granduandose. Buena suerte y mucha felicidad un su futuro.``



Mrs. Young

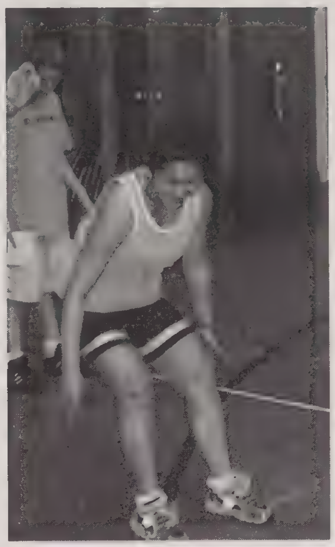
Mr. Targonski

Mrs. Mesheau

Mrs. Dangleis

Math

Percents, Decimals, Fractions, Squares, Cubes, Roots and Graphs, just another day in the world of Math! The Math department, now chaired by Mrs. Young, saw new faces in High School Math, Mrs. Mesheau and Mr. Targonski. And in the Junior High, Mrs. Dangleis was showing the ropes to new comer, Mrs. McDonald.



Mr. Degnan

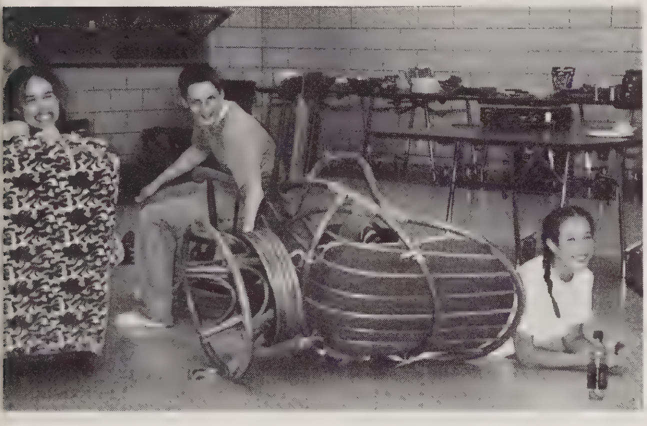
Physical Education

Subs! The word of the year in Phys. Ed. and we don`t mean grinders! One person after another attempted to fill the space left behind by Ms. Ferguson. Ultimately, Mr. Degnan was the man, making sure that everyone got their final Phys. Ed. exam.

Mr. O`Connor

Music

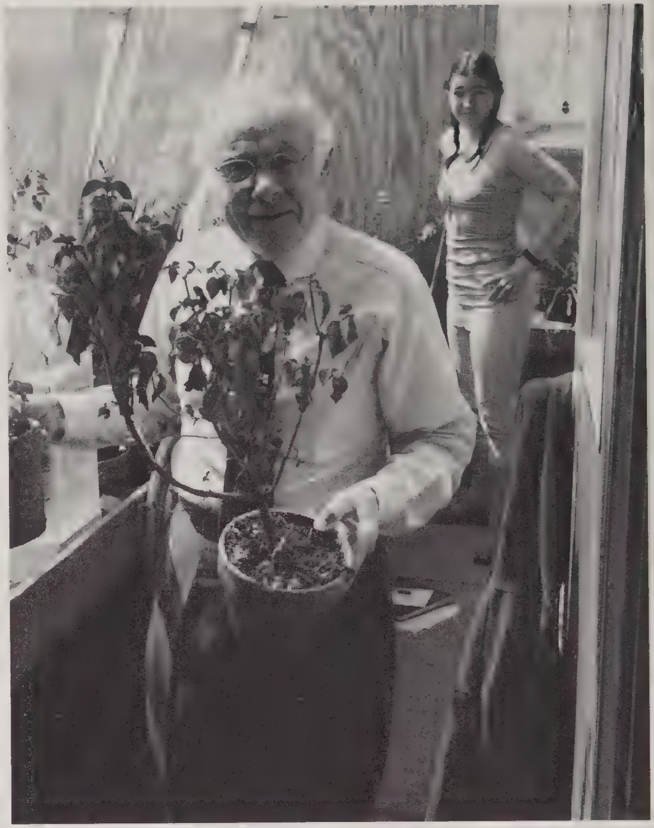
Over the roar of the wood shop mahinery, sprightly music can be heard coming from Room 100. It is within this room, that Mr. O`Connor conducts his magic. Despite a drop in enrollment this year, the music programs have flourished this year under his guidance. Several successful concerts were held this year which included a fantastic spring concert and a spectacular Christmas concert. This year was not all work though, for there were many exciting times as well. Mr. O`Connor let down his guard when he had to wear his tennis shoes with his black tuxedo at our Christmas concert! The High School Band and Chorus also enjoyed several special events. One og these was a visit from the notable composer Tim Janis. In the spring, this group of students also got an experience of a lifetime when they traveled to New York City, to see the Broadway production, Les Miserables.

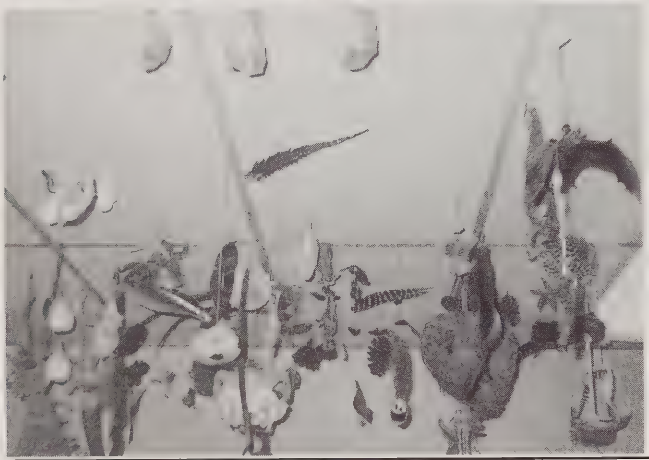


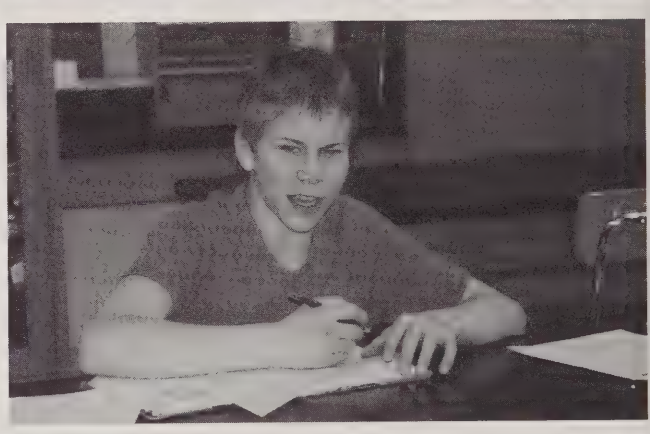
And More Music...

FUNdraising for Music...to earn money to see the Broadway show, music students participated in an overnight Rock-a-thon, and a Car Wash.

Mrs. Mullen, Mrs. Falzone, Mr. Slowick, Mrs. McDonald, and Mrs. Iby

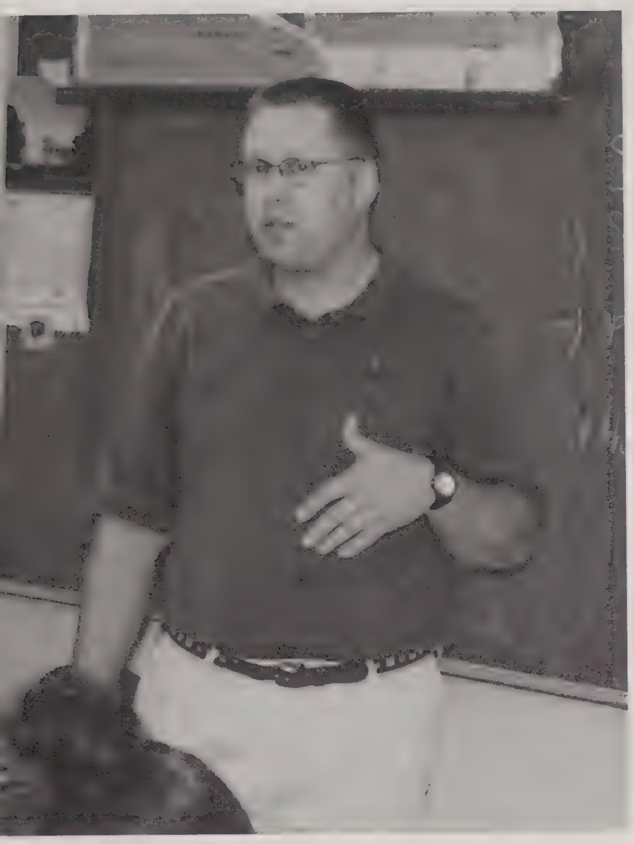






Science

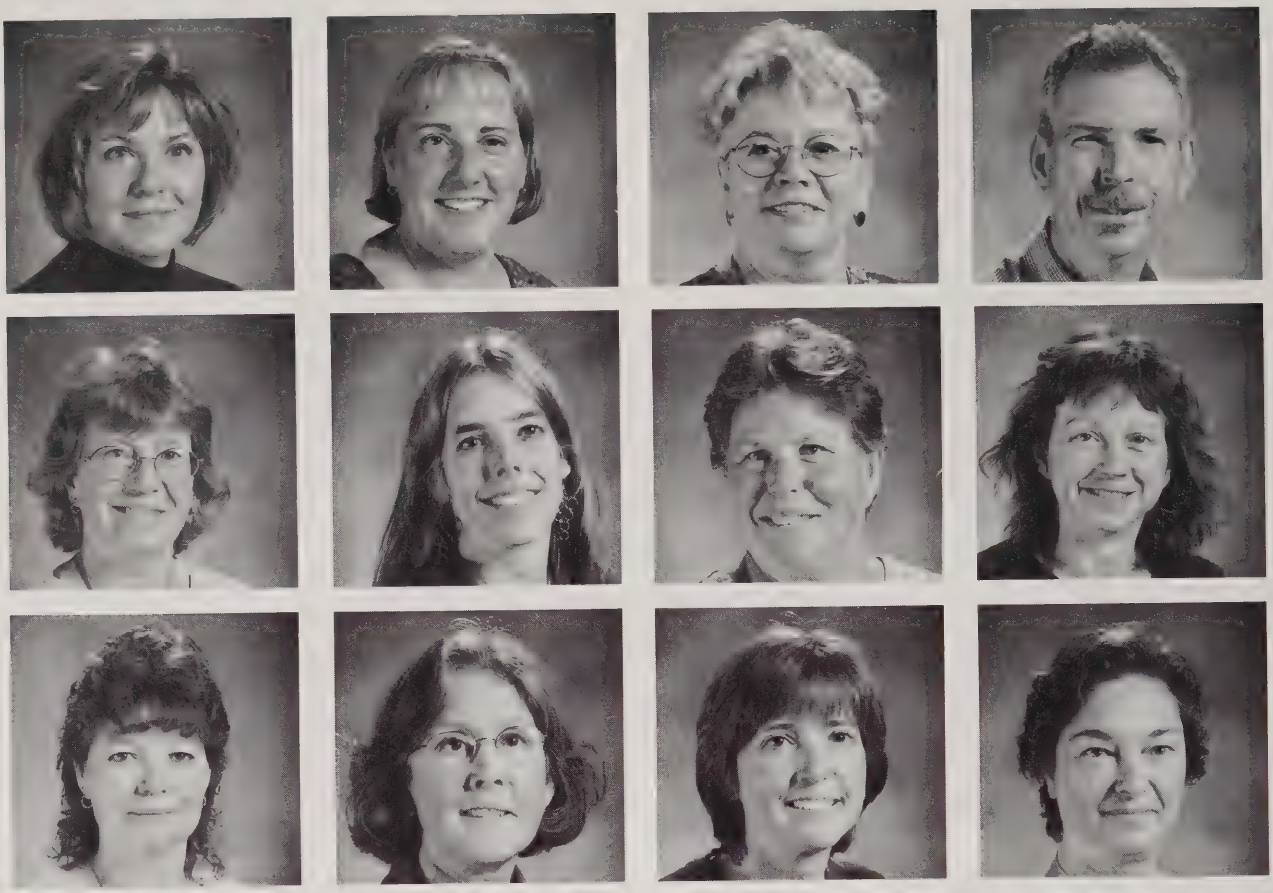
From graduated cylinders to burning pickles and the use of sulfuric acid, our science department always has a new, sometimes crazy experiment for us to do. Science is a subject that allows a student to try something new each and every year. The journey begins with Mrs. Mullen in the 7th grade. Here we learn about our friends, the unicellular ameobas. Mrs. Falzone, our 8th grade science teacher, will teach you all about volcanoes and geology. Physical Science, with Mrs. Iby brings us to the next level. Here you will learn all that you need to know about speed, velocity, and other fun formulas of this type. Mr. Slowick teaches his students about his philosophies on life and how they relate to Biology, ``Brain-Zap!`` Then of course, there is Chemistry and Environmental Science with Mrs. McDonald and Honors Physics with Mrs. Young, enough said.



Mr. Kozyra, Mrs. Royce, Mrs. Halsall, Mr. Vossen, and Mr. Roebuck

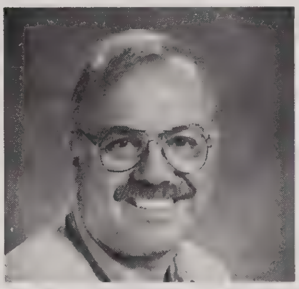
Social Studies

``Suits, Ties and Sweaters!`` History never changes and neither does the classic style of our history teachers. You`ll never catch Mr. Vossen out of his suit, nor will you find Mr. Roebuck without one of his many ties. Mrs. Halsall is always snug in a sweaterm and Mr. Kozyra has a haircut that has lasted throughout the years. Unlike the fashions of our history teachers, the history department does change. This year a big change was made, Mr. Kozyra a teacher with style, retired. This year, the world, the world of history came alive for the students of MJSHS, as Mr. Vossen`s classes toured Washington, D.C., Mr. Kozyra`s classes ``went to prison,`` and some of Mrs. Halsall`s students got a lesson on women`s rights.

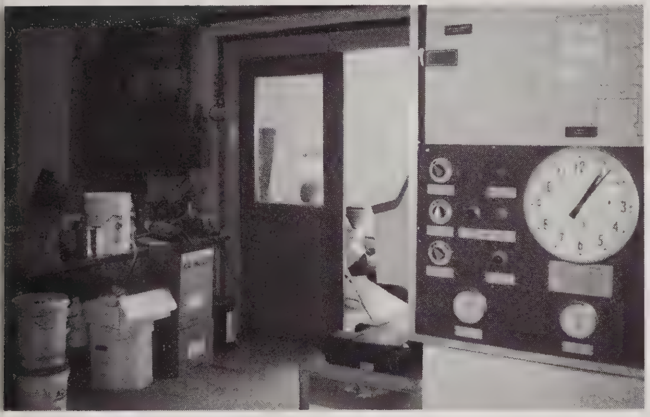


Special Education and Teaching Assistants

The Special Education Program at MJSHS is dedicated to helping students. Mrs. Dionn, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Dillon, and Mr. Healy and all of their aides provide a successful learning environment to help each high school student to reach their potential. In the Junior High it is Mrs. Rondeau and Mrs. Piscioneri that help the students to excel. It is in this program that students get the benefit of one-on-one experience with the teachers. (From Left to Right, starting with Row One: Special Education Teachers- Mrs. Dionne, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. Dillon, And Mr. Healy/Row Two: Special Education Aides- Mrs. Oullet, Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Bren, and Mrs. Hryrnkiew/Row Three: Aides Continued...-Mrs Bradway, and Mrs. King, and Teaching Assistants- Mrs. Shorette and Mrs. Hartmann.)



Mr. Brayton, (Upper photo,) and Mr. Lemanski, (Lower photo)



Tech. Ed.

Chessboards, Tables, and Stools galore! This year the Tech. Ed. department was extremely productive. Mr. Brayton and Mr. Lemanski kept their students hopping. From Cad-Key and Technical Drawing to constructing furniture, Tech. Ed. is a course that teaches skills that are important in today`s industrial world.

SEVENTH GRADE

THEY KEEP GETTING SMALLER AND SMALLER!

ALTHOUGH THE SEVENTH GRADERS ARE MORE LIKE MUNCHKINS THAN ANY OTHER CLASS, IT'S NEVER STOPPED THEM FROM CARRYING AROUND THE BIGGEST BACKPACKS. MOST LIKELY THEY COULD FIT INTO THEIR BACKPACKS, OR AT LEAST THEIR LOCKERS. SOMEDAY THEY'LL BE SENIORS BUT FOR NOW THEY'RE STILL WEARING THEIR QUARRY HILL CLASS OF T-SHIRTS.
